Expectations of Parent & Player

It is the intention of the BGCEC sports programs to provide children in our community the opportunity to play sports in a positive environment.

We ask for your full cooperation in the following ways:

- Spectators/Players shall be cooperative and respectful to Boys & Girls Clubs of El Campo staff.
- Spectators/Players shall be cooperative and respectful to referees & coaches.
- Profanity or other aggressive behavior will not be tolerated. This may result in removal from game and/or area.
- Please respect facilities; leave area clean and dispose of any trash.
- Display good sportsmanship. We support a program that builds character for the children of our community.
- Please do not interfere with games or try to coach any players, referees, or coaches. Spectators interrupting games may be asked to leave the game and/or area.
- Direct all questions/complaints to your team coach, but not during a game time. Coaches are responsible for correcting issues with the other coaches.
- Email Deanna Davidson if problems are not resolved: programspecialist@bgcelcampo.org

I have read and agree to support the BGCEC Sports Program Expectations of Parental/Player Behavior. I fully understand that the consequences for not abiding to the above expectations can result in penalties which could include removal of your child from the program.
